

Figure 1.1 General features found on the potential energy surfaces for a photochemical reaction. (a) 2-dimensional representation showing the three types of decay. (b) 3-dimensional representation of an excited state reaction path and conical intersection.